5. (1) Whenever it is proposed to constitute any land a reserved forest, Notification by Local Government of proposal to constitute a reserved forest. the Local Government shall publish a notification in the official Gazette—

(a) specifying as nearly as possible the situation and limits of such land;

(b) declaring that it is proposed to constitute such land a reserved forest; and

(c) appointing an officer (hereinafter called the Forest-settlement-officer) to inquire into and determine the existence, nature and extent of any rights claimed by, or alleged to exist in favour of, any person in or over any land comprised within such limits, and any claims relating to the practice within such limits of jhum-cultivation, and to deal with the same as provided in this Chapter.

(2) The Forest-settlement-officer shall ordinarily be a person other than a Forest-officer, but a Forest-officer may be appointed by the Local Government to assist the Forest-settlement-officer in the inquiry prescribed by this Chapter.

6. When a notification has been published Proclamation by under section 5, the Forest- Forest-settlement-settlement-officer shall publish in the language of the country, at the head-quarters of each district and subdivision in which any portion of the land comprised in such notification is situate, and in every town and village in the neighbourhood of such land, a proclamation—

(a) specifying as nearly as possible the situation and limits of the proposed forest;

(b) setting forth the substance of the provisions of the next following section;

(c) explaining the consequences which, as hereinafter provided, will ensue on the reservation of such forest; and

(d) fixing a period of not less than three months, from the date of the publication of such proclamation, and requiring every person claiming any right or making any claim referred to or mentioned in section 5 either to present to such officer within such period a written notice specifying, or to appear before him within such period and state, the nature of such right or claim.

7. (1) During the interval between the publication of accrual of forest-rights after proclamation and the date fixed by the notification declaring the forest to be reserved as hereinafter provided, no right shall be acquired in or over the land comprised in such notification, except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made or entered into by, or on behalf of, the Government or some person in whom such right or power to create such right was vested when the proclamation was published; and on such land no new house shall be built or plantation formed, no fresh clearings for cultivation or for any other purpose shall be made, and no trees shall be cut for the purpose of trade or manufacture except as hereinafter provided.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit any act done with the permission in writing of the Forest-settlement-officer, or any clearings lawfully made for jhum-cultivation by persons in the habit of practising such cultivation on such land.

8. (1) The Forest-settlement-officer shall take Inquiry by Forest-settlement-officer down in writing all statements made under section 6, and shall inquire into all claims made under that section, and the existence of any right or practice mentioned in section 5 in respect of which no claim is made.

(2) The Forest-settlement-officer shall at the same time consider and record any objection which the Forest-officer, if any, appointed under section 5 to assist him, may make to any such claim or with respect to the existence of any such right or practice.

9. For the purposes of such inquiry the Forest-settlement-officer may exercise—

(a) power to enter, by himself or any officer authorized by him for the purpose, upon any land, and to survey, demarcate and make a map of the same; and

(b) the powers of a Civil Court in the trial of suits.

10. (1) In the case of a claim relating to the treatment of claims relating to practice of jhum-cultivation practice of jhum-cultivation relating to practice of the Forest-settlement-officer shall record a statement setting forth the particulars of the claim and of any local rule or order under which the practice is allowed or regulated, and submit the statement to the Local Government, together with his opinion as to whether the practice should be permitted or prohibited wholly or in part.

The Assam Forest Regulation, 1891.(Chapter II.—Reserved Forests.—Sections 11-14.)

(2) On receipt of the statement and opinion the Local Government may make an order permitting or prohibiting the practice wholly or in part.

(3) If such practice is permitted wholly or in part, the Forest-settlement-officer may arrange for its exercise—

- (a) by altering the limits of the land under settlement so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimants, or
- (b) by causing certain portions of the land under settlement to be separately demarcated, and giving permission to the claimants to practise jhum-cultivation therein under such conditions as he may prescribe.

All arrangements made under this sub-section shall be subject to the previous sanction of the Local Government.

(4) The practice of jhum-cultivation shall in all cases be deemed to be a privilege subject to control, restriction and abolition by the Local Government, and not to be a right.

II. (1) In the case of a claim to a right in or over any land other than Power to acquire land over which right is the following rights, namely :—

officer shall pass an order specifying the particulars of such claim and admitting or rejecting the same wholly or in part.

(2) When a claim to any such right is admitted, if the right is for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or building, the Forest-settlement-officer shall record the designation, position and area of such land or the designation and position of such building.

(3) Where the right is a right to forest-produce, the Forest-settlement-officer shall record whether the forest-produce obtained by the exercise of such right may be leased, sold or bartered, and such other particulars as may be necessary in order to define the nature, incidents and extent of the right.

13. (1) When the Forest-settlement-officer has admitted wholly or in part and recorded under provision for rights of pasture or to forest-produce admitted. the last foregoing section a claim to a right of pasture or to forest-produce, he shall as far as possible provide for the exercise of such right—

- (a) by altering the limits of the proposed reserved forest so as to exclude land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind and in a locality reasonably convenient for the purposes of the claimant, or
- (b) by recording an order continuing to the claimant a right of pasture or to forest-produce, as the case may be, subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the Local Government.

(2) An order passed under clause (b) of sub-section (1) shall record, as far as practicable,—

- (i) where the right is a right of pasture, the number and description of the cattle which the claimant is from time to time entitled to graze, and the local limits within which, and the seasons during which, such pasture is permitted, and,
- (ii) where the right is a right to forest-produce, the quantity of such produce which the claimant is authorised to take or receive, and the local limits within which, the season during which, and the mode in which, the taking or receiving of such produce is permitted, and,

(iii) whether the right is a right of pasture or a right to forest-produce, such other particulars as may be required in order to define the extent of the right which is continued, the mode in which it may be exercised and the extent to which the benefit thereof may be leased, sold or bartered.

14. Whenever any right of pasture or to Commutation of such forest-produce admitted rights. under section 12 is not provided for in one of the ways prescribed in section 13, the Forest-settlement-officer shall, subject to such rules as the Local Government may prescribe in this behalf, commute such right by paying a sum of money in lieu thereof, or, with the consent of the claimant, by the grant of land, or in such other manner as such officer thinks fit.

15. Any person who has made a claim under Appeal from order this Chapter may, within passed under foregoing three months from the date sections. of any order passed on such claim by the Forest-settlement-officer under section 11, 12, 13 or 14, present an appeal from such order to such officer of the Revenue Department, of rank not lower than that of a Deputy Commissioner, as the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint by name, or as holding an office, to hear appeals from such orders.

16. (1) Every appeal under the last foregoing Appeals under the section shall be made by last foregoing section. petition in writing and may be delivered to the Forest-settlement-officer, who shall forward it without delay to the officer competent to hear the same.

(2) Every such appeal shall be heard in the manner prescribed for the time being for the hearing of appeals in matters relating to revenue, and, except as hereinafter provided, the order passed on the appeal shall be final.

Notification declar- 17. (1) When the fol- ing forest reserved. lowing events have occurred, namely:—

(a) the period fixed under section 6 for preferring claims has elapsed, and all claims, if any, made within such period have been disposed of by the Forest-settlement-officer, and

(b) if such claims have been made, the period fixed by section 15 for appealing from the orders passed on such claims has elapsed, and all appeals, if any, presented within such period have been disposed of by the appellate officer, and

(c) all lands, if any, to be included in the proposed reserved forest which the Forest-settlement-officer has, under section 11, elected to acquire under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, have become vested in the Government under that Act, the Local Government may publish a notification in the official Gazette, specifying the limits of the forest which it is intended to reserve and declaring the same to be reserved from a date fixed by such notification.

(2) From the date so fixed such forest shall be deemed to be a reserved forest.

18. Rights in respect of which no claim has been preferred under section 6 and of the existence of which no knowledge has been acquired by inquiry under section 8 shall thereupon be extinguished, unless, before the publication of such notification, the person claiming them has satisfied the Forest-settlement-officer that he had sufficient cause for not preferring such claim within the period fixed under section 6.

19. The Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the forest is situated shall, before the date fixed by such notification, cause a translation thereof in the language of the country to be published in the manner prescribed for the proclamation under section 6.

20. The Local Government may, within five years from the publication of any notification under section 13 or 16, Power to revise ar- arrangement made under section 17, revise any arrangement made under section 13 or 16, and may rescind or modify any order made under this Chapter, and direct that any one of the proceedings specified in section 13 be taken in lieu of the other of such proceedings, or that a right admitted under section 12 be commuted in the manner mentioned in section 14.

21. No right of any description shall be acquired in or over a reserved forest, except by Acquisition of rights over reserved forests. succession or under grant or contract in writing made by, or with the previous sanction of, the Governor General in Council, or some person in whom such right, or the power to create such right, was vested when the notification under section 17 was published.

22. (1) Notwithstanding anything herein contained no right continued in reserved forests. under section 13 shall be alienated by way of grant, sale, lease, mortgage or otherwise without the previous sanction of the Local Government:

Provided that, when any such right is continued for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or building, it may be sold or otherwise alienated with such land or building without such sanction.

(2) The benefit of any right continued under section 13 shall not be leased, sold or bartered except to the extent defined by the order recorded under that section.

23. Any Forest-officer may, from time to time, Power to stop ways and watercourses in re- with the previous sanction of the Local Government or of a Forest-officer or other officer authorised by the Local Government in this behalf, stop any public or private way or watercourse in a reserved forest:

Provided that for the way or watercourse so stopped another way or watercourse which, in the opinion of the Local Government, is equally convenient already exists or has been provided or constructed by the Forest-officer stopping the way or watercourse.

28. (1) The Local Government, with the Power to declare previous sanction of the forests no longer reserved.

Governor General in Council, may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, from a date to be fixed by such notification, any forest, or any portion thereof, reserved under this Regulation shall cease to be reserved.

(2) From the date so fixed such forest or portion shall cease to be reserved, but the rights, if any, which have been extinguished therein shall not revive in consequence of such cessation.

CHAPTER III.

VILLAGE-FORESTS.

29. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute any land at the disposal of the Government a village-forest for the benefit of any village-community or group of village-communities, and may in like manner vary or cancel any such notification.

(2) Every such notification shall specify the limits of such village-forest.

30. (1) The Local Government may make rules for regulating the management of village-forests, prescribing the conditions under which the community or group of communities for the benefit of which any such forest is constituted may be provided with forest-produce or with pasture, and their duties in respect of the protection and improvement of such forest.

(2) The Local Government may by such rules declare any of the provisions of Chapter II of this Regulation to be applicable to village-forests.

The Assam Forest Regulation, 1891.

.. (Chapter III.—Village-forests.—Section 31. Chapter IV.—General Protection of Forests and Forest-produce.—Sections 32-36. Chapter V.—Duty on imported Forest produce.—Sections 37-38.)

31. All claims to any rights other than the Inquiry into, and rights of the village-community or group of village-communities for the benefit of which such village-forest is constituted shall be inquired into, recorded and provided for in the manner prescribed by Chapter II of this Regulation.

CHAPTER IV.

GENERAL PROTECTION OF FORESTS AND FOREST-PRODUCE.

32. The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette,—

(a) declare that any trees or any specified class of trees standing on any land at the disposal of the Government shall, from a date to be fixed by such notification, be reserved trees;

(b) vary or cancel any such notification.

33. No person shall fell, cut, girdle, mark, lop, tap or injure by fire or otherwise any reserved tree, except in accordance with rules made by the Local Government in this behalf or as provided by the last section of this Chapter.

34. (1) No person shall make use of any forest-produce of any land belonging at the disposal of the Government and not included in a reserved forest or village-forest, except in accordance with rules to be made by the Local Government in this behalf, or as provided by the last section of this Chapter.

(2) Such rules may, with respect to such land,—

(a) regulate or prohibit the cutting of jhums or the issue of grants or leases on behalf of the Government;

(b) regulate or prohibit the kindling of fires, and prescribe the precautions to be taken to prevent the spreading of fires;

(c) regulate or prohibit the felling, cutting, girdling, marking, lopping, tapping or injuring by fire or otherwise of any trees, the sawing, conversion and removal of timber, and the collection and removal of other forest-produce;

(d) regulate or prohibit the quarrying of stone, the boiling of catechu or the burning of lime or charcoal;

(e) regulate or prohibit the cutting of grass and pasturing of cattle, and regulate the payments, if any, to be made for such cutting or pasturing;

(f) prohibit the poisoning of water, and regulate or prohibit hunting, shooting and fishing, and the setting of traps or snares;

(g) regulate the sale or free grant of forest-produce; and

(h) prescribe, or authorise any Forest-officer to prescribe, subject to the control of the Local Government, the fees, royalties or other payments for forest-produce, and the manner in which such fees, royalties or other payments are to be levied, whether in transit, or partly in transit or otherwise.

(?) The Local Government may exempt any person or class of persons, or any local area, from the operation of any such rule, and may cancel such exemption.

35. (1) If any person infringes the provisions of section 33, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

(2) The Local Government may, by a rule under section 34, attach to the breach of any rule under that section any punishment not exceeding that mentioned in sub-section (1).

36. Nothing in this Chapter, or in any rule Nothing in this Chapter, shall be deemed to prohibit any act in certain cases. done in the exercise of any right or with the permission in writing of a Forest-officer specially empowered to grant such permission.

CHAPTER V.

DUTY ON IMPORTED FOREST-PRODUCE.

37. (1) The Local Government may, with Power to impose the previous sanction of duty on forest-produce, the Governor General in Council, levy a duty, in such manner, at such places and at such rates as it may prescribe by notification in the official Gazette, on all forest-produce which is brought into the territories to which this Regulation extends from any place beyond those territories.

(2) In every case in which such duty is directed to be levied ad valorem, the Local Government may, by like notification, determine the manner in which the value is to be ascertained.

38. The Local Government may exempt any Power to exempt forest-produce from the duty to which it is liable under the last foregoing section, and revoke such exemption.

The Assam Forest Regulation, 1891.

(Chapter V.—Duty on imported Forest-produce.—Section 39. Chapter VI.—Control of Forest-produce in Transit.—Sections 40-41.)

39. Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to limit the amount, if any, chargeable as purchase-money or royalty in respect of any forest-produce.

Provisions of Chapter not to limit purchase-money or royalty.

CHAPTER VI.CONTROL OF FOREST-PRODUCE IN TRANSIT.

40. (1) The control of all rivers and their banks as regards the floatation to regulate transit of timber, as well as the control of all forest-produce in transit by land or water, is vested in the Local Government, and that Government may make rules to regulate the transit of any forest-produce.

(2) Such rules may, among other matters,—

(a) prescribe the routes by which alone forest-produce may be imported into, exported from or moved within the territories to which this Regulation extends;

(b) prohibit the import, export, collection or moving of forest produce without a pass from an officer authorised to issue the same, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of such pass;

(c) provide for the issue, production and return of such passes;

(d) fix, or authorise any Forest-officer subject to the control of the Local Government, to fix, the fees payable for such passes;

(e) in the case of timber formed into a raft or fastened to the shore, prohibit the loosening or the setting adrift of such timber by any person not the owner thereof or not acting on behalf of such owner or of the Government;

(f) provide for the stoppage, reporting, examination and marking of forest-produce in transit, in respect of which there is reason to believe that any money is payable to the Government, or to which it is desirable, for the purposes of this Regulation, to affix a mark;

(g) establish revenue-stations to which forest-produce is to be taken by the persons in charge of it for examination, or for the realization of such money, or in order that such mark may be affixed to it, and prescribe, or authorise a Forest-officer subject to such control as aforesaid to prescribe, the conditions under which forest-produce is to be brought to,

stored at and removed from such revenue-stations;

(h) provide for the management and control of such revenue-stations, and for regulating the appointment and duties of persons employed thereat;

(i) authorise the transport of timber across any land, and provide for the award and payment of compensation for any damage done by the transport of such timber;

(j) prohibit the closing up or obstruction of the channel or banks of any river used for the transit of forest-produce, and the throwing of grass, brushwood, branches or leaves into any such river, or any other act which tends to cause the obstruction of such channel;

(k) provide for the prevention and removal of any obstruction in the channel or on the banks of any such river, and for recovering the cost of such prevention or removal from the person causing such obstruction;

(l) prohibit absolutely, or subject to conditions, within specified local limits, the establishment of sawpits, the converting, cutting, burning, concealing, marking or supermarking of timber, the altering or effacing of any marks on the same, and possession or carrying of marking-hammers or other implements used for marking timber; and

(m) regulate the use of property-marks for timber and the registration of such marks, authorise the refusal or cancellation of the registration of any property-marks, prescribe the time for which the registration of property-marks is to hold good, limit the number of such marks which may be registered by any one person, and provide for the levy of fees for such registration.

(3) The Local Government may direct that any rule made under this section shall not apply to any specified class of timber or other forest-produce or to any specified local area.

41. (1) The Local Government may, by a rule under the last foregoing section, attach to the foregoing section, any punishment not exceeding imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

(2) In cases where the offence is committed after sunset and before sunrise or after preparation for resistance to the execution of any law or any legal process, or where the offender has been previously convicted of a like offence, the convicting Court may inflict double the penalty prescribed for such offence.

The Assam Forest Regulation, 1891.(Chapter VI.—Control of Forest-produce in Transit.—Section 42. Chapter VII.—Collection of Drift, Stranded and other Timber.—Sections 43-48.)

42. In case of any accident or emergency
All persons bound to involving danger to any aid in case of accident property at a revenue-at revenue-station. station established under a rule made under section 40, every person employed at such revenue-station, whether by the Government or by any private person, shall render assistance to any Forest-officer or Police-officer demanding his aid in averting such danger and securing such property from damage or loss.

within a period not less than one month from the date on which such notice is given, a written statement of such claim.

45. (1) When any such statement is presented
Procedure on claim as aforesaid, the Forest-preferred to such timber officer may, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, either reject the claim after recording his reasons for so doing or deliver the timber to the claimant.

(2) If such timber is claimed by more than one person, the forest-officer may either deliver the same to any of such persons whom he deems entitled thereto, or may refer the claimants to the Civil Court and retain the timber pending the receipt of an order from such Court for its disposal.

(3) Any person whose claim has been rejected under this section may within three months from the date of such rejection institute a suit to recover possession of the timber claimed by him, but no person shall recover any compensation against the Government or against any Forest-officer on account of such rejection, or the detention or removal of any timber or the delivery thereof to any other person under this section.

(4) No such timber shall be subject to process of any Civil Court until it has been delivered or a suit brought under this section has been decided.

46. Where no statement is presented in the Disposal of unclaimed timber manner and within the period prescribed by notice issued under section 44, or, where such statement having been so presented and the claim rejected, the claimant omits to institute a suit to recover possession of such timber within the further period mentioned in section 45, the ownership of such timber shall vest in the Government free from all incumbrances or, when such timber has been delivered to another person under section 45, in such other person free from all incumbrances not created by him.

47. No person shall be entitled to recover
Payments to be made possession of any timber by claimant before timber is collected or delivered as aforesaid until such sum as may be due for salving, collecting, moving, storing and disposing of the timber has been paid by him to the Forest-officer or other person entitled to receive the sum.

48. (1) The Local Government may make Power to make rules rules to regulate the following matters, namely:—

(a) the salving, collection and disposal of all timber mentioned in section 43;

(b) the use and registration of boats used in salving and collecting timber;

(c) the amount to be paid for salving, collecting, moving, storing and disposing of such timber; and

CHAPTER VII.COLLECTION OF DRIFT, STRANDED AND OTHER TIMBER.

Certain kinds of timber to be deemed the property of the Government until title thereto is proved.

43. (1) Timber falling under any of the following descriptions, namely:—

(a) timber found adrift, beached, stranded or sunk,

(b) timber bearing marks which have not been registered under rules made under section 40,

(c) timber which has been supermarked, or on which marks have been obliterated, altered or defaced by fire or otherwise, and

(d) in such areas as the Local Government directs, all unmarked timber, shall be deemed to be the property of the Government unless and until any person establishes his right thereto as provided in this Chapter.

(2) Such timber may be collected by any
Forest-officer or other person entitled to collect the same, and may be brought to such stations as a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf may from time to time notify as stations for the reception of drift timber.

(3) The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, exempt any class of timber from the provisions of this section and withdraw such exemption.

44. (1) Public notice shall from time to time,
Notice to claimants as occasion may require, be of timber of those kinds given by a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf of timber collected under the last foregoing section.

(2) Such notice shall contain a description of the timber, and shall require any person claiming the same to present to such officer,

The Assam Forest Regulation, 1891.(Chapter VIII.—Penalties and Procedure.—Sections 49-57.)

(d) the use and registration of hammers and other implements to be used for marking such timber.

(2) The Local Government may, by a rule under this section, attach to the breach of any rule under this section any punishment not exceeding imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or both.

CHAPTER VIII.PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE.

49. (1) When there is reason to believe that a forest-offence has been committed in respect of any forest-produce, such produce, together with all tools, boats, carts and cattle used in the commission of such alleged offence, may be seized by any Forest-officer or Police-officer.

(2) Every officer seizing any property under this section shall place on such property, or the receptacle, if any, in which it is contained, a mark indicating that the same has been so seized, and shall, as soon as may be, make a report of such seizure to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the person accused of the offence on account of which the seizure has been made:

Provided that, when the forest-produce with respect to which such offence is believed to have been committed is the property of the Government and the offender is unknown, it shall be sufficient if the officer makes, as soon as may be, a report of the circumstances to his official superior.

50. Upon the receipt of any such report, the Magistrate shall take such measures as may be necessary for the trial of the accused and the disposal of the property according to law.

51. (1) When any person is convicted of a forest-produce, tools, forest-offence, all forest- &c., when liable to confiscation. produce which is not the property of the Government, and in respect of which such offence has been committed, and all tools, boats, carts and cattle used in the commission of such offence, shall be liable by order of the convicting Court to confiscation.

(2) Such confiscation may be in addition to any other punishment prescribed for such offence.

52. When the trial of any forest-offence is concluded, any forest-produce in respect of which such offence has been committed shall, if it is the property of the Government or has been confiscated, be taken possession of by a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf, and, in any other case, shall be disposed of in such manner as the Court may order.

53. (1) When the offender is not known or Procedure when offender cannot be found, the Magistrate is not known or cannot be found. enquiring into the offence, if he finds that an offence has been committed, may, on application in this behalf, order the property in respect of which the offence has been committed to be confiscated and taken possession of by a Forest-officer specially empowered in this behalf, or to be made over to such Forest-officer or other person as the Magistrate may consider entitled to the same:

Provided that no such order shall be made till the expiration of one month from the date of the seizure of such property, or without hearing the person, if any, claiming any right thereto, and the evidence, if any, which he may produce in support of his claim.

(2) The Magistrate shall either cause a notice of any application under sub-section (1) to be served upon any person whom he has reason to believe to be interested in the property seized, or publish such notice in any way which he may think fit.

54. The Magistrate may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, direct the sale of any property seized under section 49, and subject to speedy and natural decay, and may deal with the proceeds as he might have dealt with such property if it had not been sold.

55. Any person claiming to be interested in property seized under sections 51, 52 or 53, may, within one month from the date of any order passed by a Magistrate under section 51, section 52 or section 53, present an appeal therefrom to the Court to which orders made by such Magistrate are ordinarily appealable, and the order passed on such appeal shall be final.

56. When an order for the confiscation of any property has been passed under section 51 or section 53, and the period limited by section 55 for presenting an appeal from such order has elapsed, and no such appeal has been presented, or when, on such an appeal being presented, the Appellate Court confirms such order in respect of the whole or a portion of such property, such property or portion, as the case may be, shall vest in the Government free from all incumbrances.

57. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be deemed to prevent any Forest-officer or other officer empowered in this behalf by the Local Government from directing at any time the immediate release of any property seized under section 49 which is not the property of the Government and the withdrawal of any charge made in respect of such property.

58. (1) Any Forest-officer or Police-officer Punishment for who vexatiously and un- wrongfully seizes. necessarily seizes any property on pretence of seizing property liable to confiscation under this Regulation shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

(2) Any fine so imposed, or any portion thereof, shall, if the convicting Court so direct, be given as compensation to the person aggrieved by such seizure.

59. Whoever, with intent to cause damage or injury to the public or to any person, or to cause wrongful gain as defined in the Indian Penal Code,—

- (a) knowingly counterfeits upon any tree or timber a mark used by Forest-officers to indicate that such tree or timber is the property of the Government or of some person, or that it may lawfully be felled or removed by some person, or
- (b) unlawfully affixes to any tree or timber a mark used by Forest-officers, or
- (c) alters, defaces or obliterates any such mark placed on any tree or timber by or under the authority of a Forest-officer, or
- (d) alters, moves, destroys or defaces any boundary-mark of any forest or waste land to which any provisions of this Regulation apply, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

60. (1) Any Forest-officer or Police-officer Power to arrest with- may, without orders from a out warrant. Magistrate and without a warrant, arrest any person reasonably suspected of having been concerned in any forest-offence punishable with imprisonment for one month or upwards, if such person refuses to give his name and residence, or gives a name or residence which there is reason to believe to be false, or if there is reason to believe that he will abscond.

(2) Every officer making an arrest under this section shall, without unnecessary delay, take or send the person arrested before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case or to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station.

61. It shall be the duty of every Forest-officer Power to prevent and Police-officer to prevent, and any such officer may interfere for the purpose of preventing, the commission of any forest offence.

62. (1) The Local Government may, by Power to compound notification in the official Gazette, empower a Forest-officer by name, or as holding an office,—

- (a) to accept from any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed any forest-offence, other than an offence specified in section 58 or section 59, a sum of money by way of compensation for the offence which such person is suspected to have committed; and,
- (b) when any property has been seized as liable to confiscation, to release the same on payment of the value thereof as estimated by such officer.

(2) On the payment of such sum of money, or such value, or both, as the case may be, to such officer, the suspected person, if in custody, shall be discharged, the property, if any, seized shall be released, and no further proceedings shall be taken against such person or property.

(3) No Forest-officer shall be empowered under this section unless he is a Forest-officer of a rank not inferior to that of a Forest-ranger, and is in receipt of a monthly salary amounting to at least one hundred rupees: and the sum of money accepted as compensation under sub-section (1), clause (a), shall in no case exceed the sum of fifty rupees.

63. When in any proceedings taken under Presumption in fa- this Regulation, or in con- vour of forest-produce sequence of anything done belonging to the Gov- under this Regulation, a ernment. question arises as to whether any forest-produce is the property of the Government, such produce shall be presumed to be the property of the Government until the contrary is proved.

64. (1) When any person is convicted of fell- Compensation for ing, cutting, girdling, mark- damage caused by com- mission of offences. trees or of injuring them by fire or otherwise, in contravention of this Regulation or of any rule thereunder, the convicting Court may, in addition to any other punishment which it may award, order that person to pay to the Government such compensation, not exceeding ten rupees for each tree with respect to which the offence was committed, as it may deem just.

(2) If the person convicted of the offence committed it as the agent or servant of another person, the convicting Court may, unless after hearing that other person it is satisfied that the commission of the offence was not a consequence of his instigation, or of any neglect or default on his part, order him, instead of the person who committed the offence, to pay the compensation referred to in sub-section (1).

(3) An appeal from any order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall lie to the Court to which orders made by the convicting Court are ordinarily appealable, and the order passed on such appeal shall be final.

The Assam Forest Regulation, 1891.

(Chapter VIII.—Penalties and Procedure.—Section 65. Chapter IX.—Cattle-trespass.—Sections 66-67. Chapter X.—Forest-officers.—Sections 68-71. Chapter XI.—Supplemental Provisions.—Section 72.)

65. When the holder of any lease, license or Forfeiture of leases. contract whatsoever granted or continued by or on behalf of the Government for any of the purposes of this Regulation commits an offence against this Regulation or any rule thereunder, or when any such offence is committed by any agent or servant of the holder of any such lease, license or contract, and the Local Government is satisfied that the commission of the offence was a consequence of the instigation of such holder or of any neglect or default on his part, the Local Government may, by order in writing, declare the lease, license or contract to be forfeited in whole or in part with effect on and from a date to be specified in the order not being prior to the date of the commission of the offence.

CHAPTER IX.CATTLE-TRESPASS.

66. Cattle trespassing in a reserved forest or Cattle-trespass Act, in a village-forest shall be 1871, to apply. deemed to be cattle doing damage to a public plantation within the meaning of section 11 of the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871, and may be seized and impounded as such by any Forest-officer or Police-officer.

67. The Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, fixed by that Act. direct that, in lieu of the fines fixed by section 12 of the Act last aforesaid, there shall be levied for each head of cattle impounded under section 66 of this Regulation such fines as it thinks fit, but not exceeding the following, namely:—

R. a. p.

ORGANIZATION.

NATIVE ARMY.

No. 8.—The Governor-General in Council is pleased to sanction the reconstitution of two more regiments of Madras native infantry for service in Burma.

2. The corps selected for reconstitution are the 30th and 31st Regiments of Madras Infantry, which, on re-formation, will be designated, respectively—

"THE 30TH REGIMENT (5TH BURMA BATTALION) OF MADRAS INFANTRY."

"THE 31ST REGIMENT (6TH BURMA BATTALION) OF MADRAS (LIGHT) INFANTRY."

3. These corps will be formed—the one from the existing Pyinmana Battalion of Military Police (six companies) supplemented by two companies of the Katha-Magwe Military Police Battalion, and the other from the existing Shwebo Battalion of Military Police (eight companies).

4. The existing material of the 30th and 31st Regiments of Madras Infantry will be mustered out, and the Native officers, non-commissioned officers and men now serving in these corps will be transferred to other regiments, or pensioned or discharged in the manner hereinafter stated.

5. These corps as now reconstituted will ordinarily be stationed in Burma, but will be recruited for general service.

6. The strength of each corps will be as follows, organized in eight companies:—

1 Commandant.

2 Wing Commanders (the senior to be 2nd-in-Command).

5 Wing officers (of whom one will be Adjutant and one Quartermaster).

1 Medical Officer.

8 Subadars (one of whom will be Subadar-Major).

8 Jemadars (one of whom will be Native Adjutant).

41 Havildars (including one Havildar-Major).

40 Naicks.

16 Drummers or buglers.

720 Sepoys.

7. The British officers will be selected by the Commander-in-Chief, Madras, as far as possible from volunteers from the Madras Army, but those now serving with the police corps about to be transferred to the army, if they belong to another presidency, may receive suitable appointments in the reconstituted corps for a period of three years, should it be desired to retain their services with them, and if they are willing to remain.

8. The rule (Article 266, clause (a), Army Regulations, India, vol. I, part I) requiring commandants to vacate on completion of seven years' tenure will not for the present be applied to the commandants of the corps now re-formed.

9. The pay and allowances of the British officers of these corps will be the same as those allowed for native infantry generally, but, in consideration of the circumstances of local service in Burma, each British officer will receive in addition a local allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem, and will also be eligible for the indulgence of three months' privilege leave in each year.

10. The British officers of these corps belonging to the Madras army will be eligible for general staff employment in the same way as all other officers of that army. They will be subject to the same rules as regards exchanges and transfers as the officers of the four Burma battalions already formed.

11. Probationers for the Indian Staff Corps may be appointed direct to these corps in succession to vacancies, without first going through a course of duty with other regiments of the Madras Army.

12. The native officers, non-commissioned officers and men now serving in the police battalions above named will be eligible to continue serving in the corps on their conversion on the terms now laid down.

13. The following rates of pay are sanctioned for the native ranks of the corps, viz. :—

Pay as laid down for Madras in Army Regulations, India, vol. I, part II, articles 45-C and 68-D, plus the following monthly Burma allowance in lieu of batta allowed to Madras troops in Burma (vide article 109-A of the same Regulations):

Subadar-Major	50
Subadar	30
Jemadar	15
Havildar	7-8
Naick	6
Drummer, Bugler, and Sepoy	2

The Burma local allowance will be admitted to native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the Burma battalions of Madras Infantry during all authorised leave or furlough taken by them, whether in India or in Burma.

14. Good-conduct pay will be given as laid down in articles 85 and 86 of the Regulations above quoted.

15. The conditions of service as regards enlistment, kit money, clothing, half mounting, discharge, pensions, and free quarters will be the same as those sanctioned for the four Burma battalions already formed.

16. Former service in the police battalions and in the army will count towards the period of service required for the grant of good-conduct pay and pension.

17. All ranks, including native officers, will be granted free rations as in Army Regulations, India, vol. V, para. 522.

18. Furlough and leave will be granted under the regulations in force in the Bengal Army.

19. The indulgences conceded to the military police in regard to families will be continued on the transfer of these companies of military police to the Madras Army, viz. :—

(a) Native officers will be permitted to take their families to Burma on payment of half passage money.

(b) Twenty per cent. of havildars, 20 per cent. of naicks, and 5 per cent. of drummers, buglers, and sepoys will be allowed a similar indulgence free of cost.

(c) Free accommodation will be provided for families to the above extent.

The term "families" is held to apply to wives and children only.

20. Soldiers serving in the battalions as now re-formed will be liable to transfer to any other local Burma battalions to which these corps may hereafter be linked, as the exigencies of the service may require.

21. The classes of which the 30th and 31st (Burma) Regiments of Madras Infantry are composed will be notified hereafter.

22. The Native officers, non-commissioned officers and men now serving in the 30th and 31st Regiments of Madras Infantry will cease to be borne on the rolls thereof from the 31st January, 1892, and will be disposed of as follows:

(a) Native officers, non-commissioned officers and men who have served for pension for 25 years and upwards will be transferred to the pension establishment on the superior rate of pension of their rank, irrespective of the period they may have served therein, plus rice compensation.

(b) Native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of 15 years' service and upwards will be transferred to the pension establishment on the ordinary pension of their rank (irrespective of the period they may have served therein), plus rice compensation, with the option, in the case of drummers, buglers, and privates who have not completed 21 years' service, of being transferred to other regiments.

(c) Native officers, non-commissioned officers and men of more than 10 and less than 15 years' service will be transferred to the pension establishment on two-thirds of the ordinary rate of pension of their rank (irrespective of the period they may have served therein), plus rice compensation, with the option, in the case of drummers, buglers, and privates, of being transferred to other regiments.

(d) Non-commissioned officers and men of more than 5 years' and less than 10 years' service will have the option of transfer to other regiments, and, in the case of privates only, of joining the active reserve. Such as elect for discharge from the service, or for transfer to the active reserve, will receive a gratuity of one month's pay (including good-conduct pay) for each year of service.

(e) Non-commissioned officers and men of less than 5 years' service will have the option of being transferred to other regiments, or, in the case of privates only, of joining the active reserve.

23. The restriction as to the number of men (160) to be permitted to join the active reserve of any one battalion is suspended in regard to the 30th and 31st Madras Infantry.

24. The present reservists of the battalions to be reconstituted will be allowed the option of joining the reserves of the battalions linked to these corps under their former organization, or of taking their discharge.

25. The mess, band, and other property of the 30th and 31st Madras Infantry, together with the colors of these corps, will remain with the regiments as reconstituted.

1. The Bazar Regulations of the Hyderabad Contingent stations, so far as they apply to the said cantonment, are repealed.

2. The administration of the police and the maintenance of the peace within the limits of the said cantonment, or within such lesser limits as may from time to time be fixed by order of the Resident, shall be vested in the Officer Commanding the station.

3. The immediate charge of the police within the said limits shall, under the orders of the Officer Commanding the station, be vested in the Superintendent of Police or in such other officer as may be specially appointed by the Resident or by the Officer Commanding the Hyderabad Contingent, subject to the Resident's confirmation.

4. All persons residing within the said limits shall be subject to all regulations issued by the Officer Commanding the station and confirmed by the Resident for the maintenance of good order and fair dealing in the bazar, and for the prompt and efficient execution of such services as belong to their respective occupations.

5. All persons found guilty of a breach of any of the regulations specified in the preceding section shall be punishable with fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment of fine with imprisonment of either description not exceeding one month.

6. The officer in immediate charge of the police under these orders may arrest or cause to be arrested within the said limits any vagrant or suspicious person who has no ostensible means of subsistence or any person of notoriously bad character, and the Officer Commanding the station may expel such person or persons from the said limits.

7. Any person resident beyond the said limits, who is summoned as a witness and attends to give evidence in any proceeding under these orders, shall be entitled to receive payment of his reasonable expenses at the rate of not less than one anna or more than four annas per day. The rate shall be fixed by the Court with reference to the rank and circumstances of the witness.

8. Any person smuggling, or attempting to smuggle, any spirituous liquor or intoxicating drug into the said limits, and any person, not being a vendor duly licensed, selling the same, or having in his possession within the said limits and without a permit from the proper authority more than half a bottle of any spirituous liquor or more than a quarter seer of any intoxicating drug, shall, on conviction, be liable to punishment as provided in section 5 of these orders.

9. All sentences of imprisonment passed under these orders shall be carried out in the Secunderabad Jail.

10. No person amenable to the Articles of War shall be tried under section 5 or section 8 of these orders without the previous sanction of the Officer Commanding the station. Such sanction may be given generally or for a particular case.

11. Nothing herein contained shall apply to—

(a) any proceedings pending at the date of the issue of these orders; or
(b) proceedings against European British subjects.

No. 171-I.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 4 and 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1879, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to issue the following orders applicable to the cantonment of Raichore:—

1. The Bazar Regulations of the Hyderabad Contingent stations, so far as they apply to the said cantonment, are repealed.

2. The administration of the police and the maintenance of the peace within the limits of the said cantonment or within such lesser limits as may from time to time be fixed by order of the Resident shall be vested in the Officer Commanding the station.

3. The immediate charge of the police within the said limits shall, under the orders of the Officer Commanding the station, be vested in the Superintendent of Police or in such other officer as may be specially appointed by the Resident or by the Officer Commanding the Hyderabad Contingent, subject to the Resident's confirmation.

4. All persons residing within the said limits shall be subject to all regulations issued by the Officer Commanding the station and confirmed by the Resident for the maintenance of good order and fair dealing in the bazar, and for the prompt and efficient execution of such services as belong to their respective occupations.

5. All persons found guilty of a breach of any of the regulations specified in the preceding section shall be punishable with fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment of fine with imprisonment of either description not exceeding one month.

6. The officer in immediate charge of the police under these orders may arrest or cause to be arrested within the said limits any vagrant or suspicious person who has no ostensible means of subsistence or any person of notoriously bad character, and the Officer Commanding the station may expel such person or persons from the said limits.

7. Any person resident beyond the said limits, who is summoned as a witness and attends to give evidence in any proceeding under these orders, shall be entitled to receive payment of his reasonable expenses at the rate of not less than one anna or more than four annas per day. The rates shall be fixed by the Court with reference to the rank and circumstances of the witness.

8. Any person smuggling, or attempting to smuggle, any spirituous liquor or intoxicating drug into the said limits, and any person, not being a vendor duly licensed, selling the same, or having in his possession within the said limits and without a permit from the proper authority more than half a bottle of any spirituous liquor or more than a quarter seer of any intoxicating drug, shall, on conviction, be liable to punishment as provided in section 5 of these orders.

9. All sentences of imprisonment passed under these orders shall be carried out in the Secunderabad Jail.

10. No person amenable to the Articles of War shall be tried under section 5 or section 8 of these orders without the previous sanction of the Officer Commanding the station. Such sanction may be given generally or for a particular case.

11. Nothing herein contained shall apply to—
(a) any proceedings pending at the date of the issue of these orders; or
(b) proceedings against European British subjects.

No. 172-I.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 4 and 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1879, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to issue the following orders applicable to the cantonment of Hingoli:—

1. The Bazar Regulations of the Hyderabad Contingent stations, so far as they apply to the said cantonment, are repealed.

2. The administration of the police and the maintenance of the peace within the limits of the said cantonment, or within such lesser limits as may from time to time be fixed by order of the Resident, shall be vested in the Officer Commanding the station.

3. The immediate charge of the police within the said limits shall, under the orders of the Officer Commanding the station, be vested in the Superintendent of Police or in such other officer as may be specially appointed by the Resident or by the Officer Commanding the Hyderabad Contingent, subject to the Resident's confirmation.

4. All persons residing within the said limits shall be subject to all regulations issued by the Officer Commanding the station and confirmed by the Resident for the maintenance of good order and fair dealing in the bazar, and for the prompt and efficient execution of such services as belong to their respective occupations.

5. All persons found guilty of a breach of any of the regulations specified in the preceding section shall be punishable with fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment of fine with imprisonment of either description not exceeding one month.

6. The officer in immediate charge of the police under these orders may arrest or cause to be arrested within the said limits any vagrant or suspicious person who has no ostensible means of subsistence or any person of notoriously bad character, and the Officer Commanding the station may expel such person or persons from the said limits.

7. Any person resident beyond the said limits, who is summoned as a witness and attends to give evidence in any proceeding under these orders, shall be entitled to receive payment of his reasonable expenses at the rate of not less than one anna or more than four annas per day. The rates shall be fixed by the Court with reference to the rank and circumstances of the witness.

8. Any person smuggling, or attempting to smuggle, any spirituous liquor or intoxicating drug into the said limits, and any person not being a vendor duly licensed, selling the same, or having in his possession within the said limits and without a permit from the proper authority more than half a bottle of any spirituous liquor or more than a quarter seer of any intoxicating drug, shall, on conviction, be liable to punishment as provided in section 5 of these orders.

9. All sentences of imprisonment passed under these orders shall be carried out in the Basim Jail.

10. No person amenable to the Articles of War shall be tried under section 5 or section 8 of these orders without the previous sanction of the Officer Commanding the station. Such sanction may be given generally or for a particular case.

(a) any proceedings pending at the date of the issue of these orders; or
(b) proceedings against European British subjects.

No. 173-I.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 4 and 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act (XXI of 1879) and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to apply the provisions, so far as they may be suitable, of the Succession Certificate Act (VII of 1889) to the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, subject to the modification that for section 17 the following shall be read, namely:—

“Where a certificate in the form of the second schedule to this Act has been granted under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889, by a Court having jurisdiction in British India, or where a certificate in the form, as nearly as circumstances admit, of the said schedule has been granted to a resident within a Foreign State by the British representative accredited to the State, or where a certificate so granted has been extended in such form by such Court or by such representative, the certificate shall have the same effect in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts as a certificate granted or extended under this Act.”

II. For the purpose of facilitating the application of the provisions of this Act to the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, any Court therein may construe them with such alterations, not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt them to the matter before the Court.

III. So much of the Notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 212-J., dated the 24th October 1873, as applied Act XXVII of 1860 to the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, is hereby cancelled.

No. 175-I.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 4 and 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act (XXI of 1879) and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to apply the provisions, so far as they may be suitable, of the Succession Certificate Act (VII of 1889) to the Cantonment of Secunderabad, subject to the modification that for section 17 the following shall be read, namely:—

“Where a certificate in the form of the second schedule to this Act has been granted under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889, by a Court having jurisdiction in British India, or where a certificate in the form, as nearly as circumstances admit, of the said schedule has been granted to a resident within a Foreign State by the British representative accredited to the State, or where a certificate so granted has been extended in such form by such Court or by such representative, the certificate shall have the same effect in the Cantonment of Secunderabad as a certificate granted or extended under this Act.”

II. For the purpose of facilitating the application of the provisions of this Act to the Cantonment of Secunderabad, any Court therein may construe them with such alterations, not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt them to the matter before the Court.

III. So much of the Notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 213-J., dated the 24th October 1873, as applied Act XXVII of 1860 to the Cantonment of Secunderabad, is hereby cancelled.

No. 177-I.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 4 and 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act (XXI of 1879) and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to apply the provisions, so far as they may be suitable, of the Succession Certificate Act (VII of 1889) to the Hyderabad Residency Bazars, subject to the modification that for section 17 the following shall be read, namely:—

“Where a certificate in the form of the second schedule to this Act has been granted under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889, by a Court having jurisdiction in British India, or where a certificate in the form, as nearly as circumstances admit, of the said schedule has been granted to a resident within a Foreign State by the British representative accredited to the State, or where a certificate so granted has been extended in such form by such Court or by such representative, the certificate shall have the same effect in the Hyderabad Residency Bazars as a certificate granted or extended under this Act.”

II. For the purpose of facilitating the application of the provisions of this Act to the Hyderabad Residency Bazars, any Court therein may construe them with such alterations, not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt them to the matter before the Court.

No. 179-I.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 4 and 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act (XXI of 1879) and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to apply the provisions, so far as they may be suitable, of the Succession Certificate Act (VII of 1889) to the lands in the territory of His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad, which are occupied, or may be hereafter occupied, by the Nizam's Guaranteed State Railway Company, by the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, by the Dhond-Manmad Railway, by the Madras Railway, and by the Southern Mahratta Railway, respectively (including the lands occupied as stations and out-buildings and for other railway purposes), subject to the modification that for section 17 the following shall be read, namely:—

“Where a certificate in the form of the second schedule to this Act has been granted under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889, by a Court having jurisdiction in British India, or where a certificate in the form, as nearly as circumstances admit, of the said schedule has been granted to a resident within a Foreign State by the British representative accredited to the State, or where a certificate so granted has been extended in such form by such Court or by such representative, the certificate shall have the same effect in the railway lands to which this Act has been applied as a certificate granted or extended under this Act.”

II. For the purpose of facilitating the application of the provisions of this Act to the aforesaid lands, any Court in these lands may construe them with such alterations, not affecting the substance, as may be necessary or proper to adapt them to the matter before the Court.

III. So much of the Notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 1144-I., dated the 22nd March 1888, as amended by the Notification in the same Department, No. 2065-I., dated the 22nd May, 1889, as applied Act XXVII of 1860 to the aforesaid lands, is hereby cancelled.

The 14th January, 1892.
